GUATEMALA CITY

REPORT OF RESULTS OF OCTOBER 2015:

- EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN IN LAS TUNAS: Las Tunas is a small town in the east of Guatemala City. Before our evangelistic campaign the church had a membership of 42 members. Is a town of farmers, but like in other areas of the country they are suffering food shortages. During the week of campaign our students were sharing their own food with people of the town. But also sharing the most valuable: THE GOSPEL. Results: 19 baptisms, 4 restorations, 97 contacts.
- Annual National Youth Rally in Rio Bravo: Like you know the Christians youth of Guatemala have a National Reunion of two days every year. During October 31st and November 1st more than 1,600 youth were attending this wonderful activity. Between all the attendances -of course also are attending youth that have not Jesus in their lives through the baptism. BICA is in charge of workshops of evangelism, and also the students are making personal evangelism in the town knocking doors. Thanks God BICA graduates are part of the local committees that organize the activity. On this year we had 29 baptisms in this wonderful reunion plus more than 42 restored youth! Glory God! 129 contacts.

RESULTS OF THE MONTH IN THE TWO EVANGELISTIC ACTIVITIES:

- 48 Baptisms
 - 226 Contacts
 - 46 Restorations
- WEEKEND EVANGELISTIC WORK: Again another great month working with small churches that really need the help of our students. The students report that after 10 months of work with the churches they can observe new men in the church taking the responsibility of the work!
